UN System Side Event

Economics of Mitigation:
Energy sector, global trade, international maritime transport

Date: 18 November 2013
Time: 16:45 – 18:15
Location: Room Warsaw

Side event summary:
Three international organizations present their work in support of their Member States' efforts to find economically efficient and environmentally effective strategies for reducing GHG emissions in the energy sector (IAEA), and international maritime transport (IMO) and the role of international trade to further these strategies (WTO).

Facilitator: Ferenc L. Toth (IAEA)

Presentations:

Ferenc L. Toth, Senior Energy Economist, IAEA
Mitigation in the energy sector

Zbigniew Kubacki, Director, Ministry of Economy, Poland
Mitigation in the energy sector in Poland

Ludivine Tamiotti, World Trade Organization
The role of the multilateral trading system in furthering climate strategies

Edmund Hughes, Technical Officer, Marine Environment Division, IMO
Economics of mitigation for international maritime transport – regulatory framework

Simon Bennett, Director External Relations, International Chamber of Shipping
Economics of mitigation for international maritime transport - Industry perspective

Questions and discussion
We are very much looking forward to welcoming you to this UN System side event.