Introduction

1 The Council, at its one hundredth regular session, noted (C 100/7) that, pursuant to resolution A.1002(25) on Piracy and armed robbery against ships in waters off the coast of Somalia, a sub-regional meeting on piracy and armed robbery against ships in the Western Indian Ocean, Gulf of Aden and Red Sea areas had been organized by the Organization in Dar es Salaam, United Republic of Tanzania from 14 to 18 April 2008.
2 In particular, the Council:

.1 noted the development of a draft Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) concerning the repression of piracy and armed robbery against ships in the Western Indian Ocean, the Gulf of Aden and the Red Sea, as a work in progress for further consideration by the States concerned; and took into account the views of Council Members from countries in the region (C 100/D, paragraph 7.2(iv)); and

.2 requested the Secretary-General to take appropriate action to promote the aforementioned MoU, including convening a high-level meeting to conclude it at the earliest possible time (C 100/D, paragraph 7.2(v)).

3 The Council may recall that, following advice by the Secretary-General at C 101 to the effect that a follow-up meeting, due to take place in Sana’a in October 2008, had to be postponed for security reasons, it endorsed (C 101/D, paragraph 10(a).2(vii)) the action of the Secretariat to convene, in the context of resolution A.1002(25), a high-level meeting, in Djibouti, in January 2009, to conclude a regional agreement concerning the repression of piracy and armed robbery against ships in the Western Indian Ocean and the Gulf of Aden.

The Djibouti Meeting

4 The Sub-regional meeting on maritime security, piracy and armed robbery against ships for Western Indian Ocean, Gulf of Aden and Red Sea States was held in Djibouti from 26 to 29 January 2009 and was attended by 17 (out of the 21) States in the region. In addition, 12 States from outside the region; four United Nations bodies and programmes; nine intergovernmental; and three non-governmental organizations attended the meeting as observers.

5 The Meeting was opened by H.E. Mr. Dileita Mohamed Dileita, Prime Minister of the Republic of Djibouti, the Secretary-General and Mr. Ali Hassan Bahdon, Minister of Equipment and Transport of the Republic of Djibouti. Mr. Mohamed Clem (Ministry of Equipment and Transport of Djibouti) chaired the Meeting.

6 The Meeting adopted the following resolutions, the texts of which are attached in the annex:

- Resolution 1, on Adoption of a code of conduct concerning the repression of piracy and armed robbery against ships in the Western Indian Ocean and the Gulf of Aden;
- Resolution 2, on Technical co-operation and assistance;
- Resolution 3, on Enhancing training in the region; and
- Resolution 4, on Expressions of appreciation.

The Djibouti Code of Conduct (Resolution 1)

7 The Meeting adopted a Code of Conduct concerning the Repression of Piracy and Armed Robbery against Ships in the Western Indian Ocean and the Gulf of Aden, which was signed on 29 January 2009 by the representatives of Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Madagascar, Maldives, Seychelles, Somalia, the United Republic of Tanzania and Yemen. It remains open for signature at IMO Headquarters by other countries in the region.
8 The Code, which became effective from the date it was signed (29 January 2009), takes into account and promotes the implementation of those aspects of UN Security Council resolutions 1816 (2008), 1838 (2008), 1846 (2008) and 1851 (2008) and of UN General Assembly resolution 63/111, which fall within the competence of IMO.

9 In particular, the signatories to the Code have agreed to co-operate, in a manner consistent with international law, in:

(a) the investigation, arrest and prosecution of persons, who are reasonably suspected of having committed acts of piracy and armed robbery against ships, including those inciting or intentionally facilitating such acts;

(b) the interdiction and seizure of suspect ships and property on board such ships;

(c) the rescue of ships, persons and property subject to piracy and armed robbery and the facilitation of proper care, treatment and repatriation of seafarers, fishermen, other shipboard personnel and passengers subject to such acts, particularly those who have been subjected to violence; and

(d) the conduct of shared operations – both among signatory States and with navies from countries outside the region – such as nominating law enforcement or other authorized officials to embark on patrol ships or aircraft of another signatory.

10 In addition, the Code provides for sharing of related information, through a number of centres and national focal points using existing infrastructures and arrangements for ship to shore communications (i.e. the Regional Maritime Rescue Coordination Centre in Mombasa, Kenya and the Rescue Coordination Sub-Centre in Dar es Salaam, United Republic of Tanzania) and the regional maritime information centre, which is being established in Sana’a, Yemen.

11 The signatories also undertook to review their national legislation with a view to ensuring that there are laws in place to criminalize piracy and armed robbery against ships and to make adequate provision for the exercise of jurisdiction, conduct of investigations and prosecution of alleged offenders.

Technical co-operation and assistance (Resolutions 2 and 3)

12 In another resolution the Meeting requested States, IMO, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), the European Commission (EC), the Regional Co-operation Agreement on Combating Piracy and Robbery Against Ships in Asia – Information Sharing Centre (ReCAAP-ISC) and the maritime industry to provide assistance, either directly or through IMO, to those States, which require support in the effective implementation of the Djibouti Code of Conduct. It further recommended the establishment of a regional training centre in Djibouti for the purposes of promoting the implementation of the Code. It, furthermore, accepted, with appreciation, the offer of the Government of Djibouti to host a regional training centre within the scope of the Code; and recommended that the Secretary-General takes appropriate action to establish it.
Expressions of appreciation (Resolution 4)

13 The Meeting expressed appreciation to the Government and People of Djibouti for their valuable contribution to the success of the meeting; to the Governments of Japan, Norway and the Republic of Korea for financially supporting the convening of the Meeting; and to the Secretary-General and the Secretariat, for their tireless efforts and outstanding support for the preparation and conduct of the Meeting.

Action requested of the Secretary-General

14 The Meeting requested the Secretary-General to take a number of actions within the scope of its outcome, in particular, that the Record of the Djibouti Meeting be established in a single original text in the Arabic, English and French languages, to be deposited with him; and also that he transmits copies of the Record, together with its attachments and certified copies of the authentic text of the Djibouti Code of Conduct, to the Governments of the 21 States, which had been invited to attend the Meeting.

15 To give effect to the decisions of the Meeting, the Secretariat has finalized the authentic text of the Record of the Djibouti Meeting and of its attachments in the Arabic, English and French languages and action is being taken to send certified copies thereof to the States, which were invited to attend the Meeting.

16 In accordance with established practice, the Council should authorize the Secretary-General to act as Depository for the Record of the Djibouti Meeting. Subject to the decision of the Council, the Secretary-General intends to inform the States, which were invited to participate in the Djibouti Meeting (irrespective of whether they have signed the Djibouti Code of Conduct) and all other Member States, when a State signs the aforesaid Code, although the Code does not explicitly require him to do so.

Action requested of the Council

17 The Council is invited to:

.1 note the outcome of the Djibouti Meeting and, in particular, the adoption of the Djibouti Code of Conduct (which will remain open for signing at the Organization’s Headquarters) and the resolutions adopted thereby (paragraphs 4 to 13);

.2 authorize the Secretary-General to perform the functions of Depository of the Record of the Djibouti Meeting (paragraphs 14 to 16); and

.3 express appreciation to Government of the Republic of Djibouti for hosting the Djibouti Meeting; to the Governments of Japan, Norway and the Republic of Korea for their financial contribution; and to the States and international organizations, which supported and assisted the Meeting.

REAFFIRMING that international law, as reflected in UNCLOS, sets out the legal framework applicable to combating piracy and armed robbery at sea;

NOTING that the Assembly of the International Maritime Organization (hereinafter referred to as “IMO”), at its twenty-fifth regular session, adopted, on 27 November 2007, resolution A.1002(25) on Piracy and armed robbery against ships in waters off the coast of Somalia which, among other things, called upon Governments in the region to conclude, in co-operation with IMO, and implement, as soon as possible, a regional agreement to prevent, deter and suppress piracy and armed robbery against ships;

NOTING ALSO that the General Assembly of the United Nations, at its sixth-third session, adopted, on 5 December 2008, resolution 63/111 on Ocean and the law of the sea which amongst others:

- recognizes the crucial role of international cooperation at the global, regional, sub-regional and bilateral levels in combating, in accordance with international law, threats to maritime security, including piracy, armed robbery at sea, terrorist acts against shipping, offshore installations and other maritime interests, through bilateral and multilateral instruments and mechanisms aimed at monitoring, preventing and responding to such threats, the enhanced sharing of information among States relevant to the detection, prevention and suppression of such threats, the prosecution of offenders with due regard to national legislation and the need for sustained capacity-building to support such objectives;

- emphasizes the importance of prompt reporting of incidents to enable accurate information on the scope of the problem of piracy and armed robbery against ships and, in the case of armed robbery against ships, by affected vessels to the coastal State, underlines the importance of effective information-sharing with States potentially affected by incidents of piracy and armed robbery against ships, and takes note of the important role of the IMO;

- expresses serious concern regarding the problem of increased instances of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia, expresses alarm in particular at the recent hijacking of vessels, supports the recent efforts to address this problem at the global and regional levels, notes the adoption by the Security Council of the United Nations of resolutions 1816 (2008) of 2 June 2008 and 1838 (2008) of 7 October 2008, and also notes that the authorization in resolution 1816 (2008) and the provisions in resolution 1838 (2008) apply only to the situation in Somalia and do not affect the rights, obligations or responsibilities of Member States of the United Nations under international law, including any rights or obligations under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea (hereinafter referred to as “UNCLOS”), with respect to any other situation, and underscores in particular that they are not to be considered as establishing customary international law;
